

ATTESTATION OF DOCUMENTS/ STATEMENT OF NEED (SON) / INDIAN DRIVING LICENSE AUTHENTICATION

Applicant Name:	Passport No.:
Email Address:	Phone No.:

- It is mandatory for the documents issued by the US authorities to be apostilled by the relevant authorities in the USA before presenting the document for attestation at the Mission/ post.
- Documents which are not apostilled from India will not be authenticated by Embassy. Such documents will only be attested as 'True Copy Attestation Only'. On each document to be attested, applicant will state that "I TAKE FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONTENTS OF THE DOCUMENT" and write full name and sign, as in the passport. For authentication of Indian driving licenses, please take a printout of your license details from the portal of the relevant transport authority in India and then submit the same for attestation by following the above steps. Applicants submitting two documents for Statement of Need must submit both the documents (Bio-data and Affidavit) along with one photocopy.
- In case of applicants of other nationalities, they may first get the documents apostilled by the US State Department/Authorities. Embassy will attest the documents for such categories of applicants only after those are apostilled. However, there is no need for the documents to be apostilled for OCI/PIO card holders. Such applicants may follow the same procedure for Indian nationals and enclose a notarized copy of OCI/PIO.
